MY DREAM

Yesterday I was very tired and I decided to go to sleep in my bed// but I couldn't sleep and I felt scared// because I could see a spider making its web and I was terrified.// I started to cry and called my mum (teacher puts his hand in his ear to listen to the screams) //My mum who was having dinner, eating her wonderful spaghetti// suddenly heard my scream and she felt very surprised // so she stopped eating and came to my bedroom because she was very worried.// She opened the kitchen door// went upstairs and ran as fast as a lion (teacher says: i would like see you as very fast lions) and finally she opened my bedroom door. My mother tried to catch the spider but// it was very difficult because its was very small// but then my mum held the spider in her hands, opened the window and put the spider out of our house//. My mum kissed me where?? and I started to feel comfortable and I went back to sleep.// Suddenly I woke up! It was a sunny day, //I felt full of energy, happy and very positive, //so I decided to go out and walk in the street.// When I was walking I saw my neighbor was walking his dog //so I said hello because I was in a good mood but he was angry.// I felt surprised but I thought don't worry //give him a big smile so i smiled a lot. // I saw his face was changing from angry to relaxed// and finally he had a happy face and he walked very happily.// At that moment his dog started to watch a cat //The cat was happy until the dog started to chase it. //The cat climbed a very, very tall tree. In that tree there was a monkey, jumping// from one branch to another// and eating bananas//. Suddenly I heard a tiger roaring// I was frightened and I tried to climb the tree too. The tiger came to me slowly but suddenly the cat transformed into a very big dragon, blowing fire// and it started to fly very high.// Then I felt very small and I don't know how but I was a bee// and I smelt all the flowers around me //and I flew to the flowers and swallowed all the sweet nectar.// I was very happy but one big human tried to kill me with his..... I was scared and furious. I tried to sting the human. And I closed my eyes ready to sting the human but when I opened my eyes I was a dolphin swimming very, very fast to the surface and then I jumped very high turning around. When I dived back into the water, there wasn't any water and I was lying on the floor and jumping, I was stressed I couldn't breathe. I'm going to die oh no, but like a snake I tried to get to the water. Then I could see elephants, running, cows and bulls, kangaroos jumping and a lot of birds flying. Suddenly I can't (can't or can?) feel the floor, I can fly yihaa!! it was incredible. But then suddenly I felt a great bump and I opened my eyes. I was on the floor crying and at that moment my mum hugged me.
